Original Poetry.

ACROSTIC.

BY BECKIE HARRIS.

Beauty and grace, and "Grecian Bend,"
Entice ladies their souls to send,
Low into fashion's dismal vaults,
Looking for balm, (one of their faults,)
[Eve knew this, and had her share,]
Frowning on other faces fair,
On natural beauty—rich and r re,
Nodding to fops with high-crowned hats,
They blush beneath their broad-rimed flats;
E ger for fray, they lore the day.

Roving around with injured brains,
Each young gent of his girl complains,
Partly swears he'll woo no more,
Unless his heart for love gets sore,
Bows to the first powder and paint,
Looks in each face just like a saint;
I've judged you both, fair Miss, and gent.
Can you forgive? but, if you can't,
A sinner I'm content to be.
Now, a proverb I'll whisper thee.

He who thinks, a faultless piece to see,
Thinks what ne'er was, now is, nor e'er shall be.

THE FAIR.

The Biggest Success of the Season.

WHAT WAS THERE, AND WHAT WASN'T.

Everything Noted.

Minus the watery space of the blanket sheets, we are compelled to put out our report of the second Annual Fair of the Centre County Agricultural Society, upon the present grounds, in concise and staccato directness.

Mention of the rare adaptation of the location to the purposes of a County Fair—the vast number of delighted spectators present—immunity from accidents, and all manner of "onpleasantnesses" enjoyed—courteousness and efficiency of Society officers, police and attendants, would be but useless repetition of what thousands saw and remarked scores of times during the continuance of the Fair. We will, therefore, commence at the beginning

TUESDAY.

Nobly recovering from the dreary and forbidding prospects several preceding days combined to augur her fate, broke cool and hopeful. The glorious Winthrop once said an October's day was the nearest foretaste of the reward of the blest hereafter, vouchsafed to man below. Doubtless the October days in Winthrop's memory, embraced sunnier hours than

"Kissed the sun to day," but ours were "sufficient unto the day," and the desponding took hope.

Early morn discovered several energetic exhibitors and suttlers heavily armed with hammers, nails, saws and various other implements of manufacture. These implements have stood in hand the day through, and the racket and din ceased as the sun went down. Gradually the grounds assumed a busier aspect, and the scattering vehicles of enterprising exhibitors trailed up the hill and deposited their loads, just as a myriad other wagons have done before them.—Attentive and "posted" officers busily and appropriately arranged all goods consigned to their care. By noon a small Fulton market-ful of vegetables, fruit and "nonsuches" amply justified the Vegetable Department in putting on airs, and proclaiming herself a demonstrable success, whatever disaster occurred to the other classes. Such peaches, pears, apples and golden grapes have not moistened our mouth—figuratively—and nerved our digits—needlessly—since before Fate booked us for a Reporter, and then we had such things. Of this Department, its contents and proud owners, another day or two will needs be ours before facts and figures can be given.

Floral Hall was early saddled and bridled by our young friend Jas. McClure who prominently displays fine handiwork of skilled workmen, at the West end of the Hall. At the East end, the artistic genius of young Nolan appears in pictured colors. The group of five sketches—two crayon and three oil paintings—will be appropriately "yours truly'd" in due time. Late in the day, the tasteful and elaborate handiwork of busy fingers hirsuted bipeds love to clasp, gradually filled the "void," and, with jellies, honey-combs, and other tasteful "appurtenances," the Floral Hall came near announcing itself as big a fact as the vegetable kingdom. To-morrow will leave no doubt of what this Department will be.

The Mechanical Department presents anything but that representative appearance so desirable at fairs, and so suggestive of the material prosperity of a county. Save the broad acres of waving grain and shocks of golden wheat, nothing so deeply, perfectly and truly represents the staple condition of a county so well as the Mechanical Department at a County Fair. Three reapers, one cornsheller and seperator, a cornplanter and churn, embraces, save the Dexter Washing Machine, down by the creek, all the receipts in this Department today. But then, to morrow, we trust, will show a better collection. Of those present, as well as those to come, our time will gladly be occupied by and by.

The Stock market ruled confoundedly low, the whole day through. The forenoon chronicled the arrival of one lone Durham bovine, the property of Mr Samuel Gilliland. She was joined in the afternoon by a yoke of 2975 lb. oxen, the property of Dr. Elias W. Hale. The show of stock, numerically, can be little worse, and, poor as it is, it exceeds the exhibition in poultry. Two lone Cochin Chinas kept silent watch the whole day long, unmolested and unnoted by woman or child. Biddy looked as cheerful as the prospects invited, but it was plainly evident the "old boy" was heartily disgusted at his limited harem. Flap your wings, old chanticleer, the morning will dawn brighter.

The track is in splendid condition, and it is a great pity there is not more of it. The usual variety of brutes that could," and couldn't go; drivers good, and those who never drove before—nor ought again; and vehicles, various, gave the track an animated look.

Several harmless short winded "spurts" between light weights, for beer and benzine, were presided over by the Champion of country anatomy and nothing.—Later, and a slight buzz announced the arrival of Lipton's speedy "Rose," driven by A. Mullen. A few leisure warming-up turns, and away went the merry mare, rattling off her spaces beautifully. The light weights, abashed, retreated, just as a second interjection denoted the coming of Rikard's "Harry Clay." The terms were speedily arranged, and the magic "go" found the splendid beasts abreast, Harry inside. We dare not amplify here—it must suffice that "Harry's record, in the three heats, was 3:13, 3:09 and 3:10, "Rose" hard pressing. Opinions vary, and we hold our own. There is nothing so certain as the uncertainty of a horse race. Death was distanced in that direction long ago.

The sun smiled benignantly on the myriad policemen and departing figures of the pleased spectators. To-morrow will, we confidently predict, see the "show" in full blast. Then we shall see what we shall see.

WEDNESDAY.

One of Winthrops poetical days. From "early morn 'till dewy eve," Nature laughed outright, showering down, unsolicited, her warmth of genial rays in wanton profusion.

So soon as seven, the class, fair-sustaining, sprinkled the highway and hill road to the receiving house "builded with hands" at $2 a day. The capacity of police, not less than space, was well taxed. The waiting and willing shelves, broad, inviting tables and seductive nooks, in Vegetable and Floral departments, were satisfied that nothing was created in vain. The hard fisted, enterprising yeoman deposited his overgrown cabbages, beets and mammoth corn, while his not less enterprising and ambitious spouse made equally liberal and far handsomer contributions to the Hall Floral. This latter Department, to-day, bid glad Vale, Vale to her skeptical attendants of yesterday, and with the assistance, and in the presence of beauty, health and genuine rejoicing, proclaimed her sovereignty, and assumed her royal crown, labelled SUCCESS. We will let the Vegetable and Floral domains rest for the day, content that no poaching hand can lessen their value, or steal their deserving thunder ere our special and enumerative pencil chronicles their double success.

The Mechanical Department was sensibly—not very—augmented, but of the additions and whole, we refrain until to-morrow.

The entries in the stock books were favorable, yet lack in number and kind. It is strange, unaccountably strange, that these half dozen stalls are not occupied by some of the thousand fatted and comely animals to be seen on a day's drive through the county. It is wrong, unpatriotic and reprehensible. Of this idea, the stock and certain other animals we add, "to be continued."

The daily p m. trots were duly announced, and did not lack for interested spectators. The hillside and sidehills were well dotted with the various kinds of the human race, mostly men, women and children. First came the advertised trot of double teams for the $30 premium. Rikard entered his favorites, "Harry Clay" and "Lew Petit"—Lee, his gallant steeds, "Jersey Bill" and "Tommy Star." The warming-up process indicated a very closely contested trial. First heat, both teams came up in good order, and went off splendidly at the word go, Rikard inside. Harry and Lew took the lead, and not for a moment seemed disposed to yield the advance.—Nor did they break during the first heat, maintaining, with steady pertinacity, their speed and lead. Tom and Bill—especially the latter—for who didn't sympathise with him?—stretched out bravely to recover a sad gap made, as we believe, causelessly. Dr., we rap your knuckles slightly as possible, but we don't blame the horses for letting their opponents pass the pole at 3:27 4-5.

Second heat. Both teams well in hand, Bill and Tom indicating a "level best" go. "Lew Petit" "raised," and Lee, inexorable, hardened his heart, stiffened the reins, and kept on the even tenor of his way and would win at 3:35 1-5.

The third heat saw Rikard over the pole at 3:30 1-5, Lee doing a rushing business just too late. The fourth "go" resulted like the third, and Petit and Clay took the pole at 3:23 2-5, thus giving their enterprising and delighted possessor the premium. Our sympathies were on the other side—our stamps in our pocket.

The Gentleman's Driving horses came up sandwitched between the trot of the double teams. Richard Conly entered his black gelding, "Packer;" Augustus Krom, sorrel gelding, "Dick Turpin;" A. S. Valentine, dark bay horse, "Billy;" J. K. Thomas, bay mare, "Lady;" Geo. A Lose, brown mare, "Jenny;" D. Valentine, bay horse, "Prince," and P. Benner Wilson, the celebrated "Dot."—We cannot extend our report of this exciting contest, and, therefore, announce Lose's "Jenny" winner of three heats, time: 3:35 2 5, 3:37 and 3:37 2 5. Krom's sorrel took the second premium.

With the announcing of these premiums, a general effort was made by all interested, to leave the grounds, and the attempt proved very successful, and quiet reigned supreme over the ampitheatre and grand hillside.

THURSDAY.

The anticipation and predictions of the sanguine were well verified by the attendance of a "large multitude." Floral Hall was dressed out superbly, and, to begin somewhere, we enumerate among the articles and exhibitors the following:

J. H. McClure, three horn spring Ladys' side saddles, mans' saddle, light single harness and collars. This work was excellent throughout, not less in style than durability. E. Sam'l Gilliland, two magnificent porkers, 14½ months old, one weighing 465 lbs., and the other 480—945.

MECHANICAL DEPARTMENT, not what it should be by a very long shot; and this, too, from no lack of implements manufactured in the county. Simply from an inexcusable lack of enterprise on the part of inventors and manufacturers.

The Centre Hall Manufacturing Company early placed its wares upon the ground, and deserve much credit for their enterprise. This Company exhibited a cornsheller and separator, of the J. M. Ross patent, and looking clean and valuable; a Rough and Ready corn planter, already favorably known by the farmers of Centre, and the prime "Keystone Harvester and Mower," yearly growing in favor and use.

Musser, Foote & Bower, of Millheim, have here one of their ever-serviceable Cultivators, known, the country over, as one of the best of its kind.

Shortlidge & Co., Agents, have here the celebrated Western "Marsh Harvester" on exhibition. The writer of this can bear testimony of the rare value of this wonderful machine, having seen hundreds of them in use in the several Western States. It must inevitably supplant the long list of cheaper but infinitely less serviceable machines now flooding the country. We go heavily on the "Marsh."

Mr. Peter Hoffer has one of the well known and valuable "Excelsior Mowers and Reaper," of Akron, Ohio, manufacture, on exhibition. A good, durable and well known machine.

McLanahan, Stone & Isett exhibited a wonderfully simple, and, therefore, valuable "Reaper and Mower," combined machine, good, for its very simplicity.

J. Teller exhibits a pair of bob sleds and good pump.

W. K. Williams, portable dry house.

The races attracted great attention.—The first "go" was for a $30 premium, open to all horses never having "done the thing" in less than 4 minutes time—first horse $15; second horse. $10, and third horse, $5. Three entries were made.—A. Lee, "Tommy Star;" A. A. Stuart, "Nigger Baby;" W. D. Rikard, "Lew Pettit."

The dash, throughout, was warmly contested, and resulted in a deserving victory for the gallant Pettit.

1st heat—time, - - - 3:21 1-5.
2nd " " - - - - 3:22 1-5.
3rd " " - - - - 3:17

"Tommy Star" occupied his time in taking the second premium.

The second "go" was for a volunteer premium of $100, donated by Mr. Rikard, of the Bush House—$75 to first, and $25 to second horse. Three entries were made.

J. H. Lipton, "Rose;" W. D. Rikard, "Mike;" A. Lee, "Jersey Bill." The following is the score:

1st heat—"Mike," - - 2:07 1 5.
2nd " " - - - - 3:03 3 5.
3rd " " - - - - 3:03 2-5.

FRIDAY.

A sinking business resulted from this day's transaction. Everything spiriting was spirited away as easily as Meeklied Twitchell out of his grave. The bare shelves, vacated stalls, and virtuously clean side-hill, testified to the "cleaning out" process.

The $50 trot between Prof. "Lee's "Jersey Bill," and Stuart's "Black Charlie," resulted in a victory for "William" by a vote of 3:04.

The awarding of premiums occupied some little time, after which the "digging out" process progressed most magnificently.

The receipts of the four day's exhibition amounted, as nearly as we could learn, to about FIFTEEN HUNDRED DOLLARS.

BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN.

W. W. BROWN, A. B. HUTCHISON, } EDITORS.

Terms $2 Per Annum in Advance.

BELLEFONTE, PA.,

Wednesday Morning, Oct. 20, 1869.

ADVERTISING.—The BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN has a larger circulation than any other Republican paper published in the county. Our merchants and business men will please make a note of this.

Dr. Deshler circulated mixed Democratic tickets, with the names of Coburn and Cadwalader, instead of Meyer and Wolf.—Centre Hall Reporter.

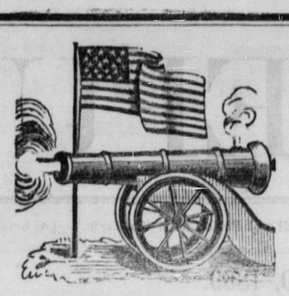
Good for Dr. Deshler! Fred, what are you going to do about it? Dr. Deshler is a freeman. He is no slave. He is too intelligent to be wheedled into line by the Court House Ring. Nor is Dr. Deshler alone in the matter. If the Dr is the only Democrat who circulated those tickets, he must have a great deal of influence, and must have been very industrious.—Over two hundred intelligent independent Democrats in Pennsvally thought as Dr. Deshler thought. If there had been a few more of the same kind we would not now be disgraced with anti-Railroad Meyer in the Legislature.

MR. PACKER'S friends have been sadly disappointed by the returns from the anthracite counties. He loses 345 in Schuylkill, and 1,128 in Luzerne, gaining only 47 votes in Carbon, his family's county, 99 in Lycoming county and 128 in Lehigh—a net loss to the Pride of the Valley of about 1,200 votes. Taken altogether, this result must have been more of an unpleasant damper to him than the enforced bath which, it is said, his friends and neighbors gave him some years ago. That story may have been a myth, but Tuesday's hard fact was a reality which even he could not dodge.

THE shouts of victory from Ohio and Iowa come in time to swell and prolong our notes of triumph.—The gallant Republicans of those States have battled well and won the great prize they contended for. This contest has settled the principles of the nation. We have now, indeed, a country "great, glorious and free."

THE complete revolution in Luzerne county is the most encouraging bit in the way of reform, Republicans have heard of for many a day. The light from that heretofore dark part of the State is as cheering as the glowing coals from its mines on a cold winter's night.

WE have given all our space this week to our report of the fair—the premium list and the election news. Next week we will be all O. K. We hope our local reporters will send in the news without fail. It is our intention to make the REPUBLICAN the best family paper in the county.



Glorious Victory!

COPPERHEADISM GONE UP.

The Eagle---Emblem of Strength, Progress and Liberty, bears aloft the Poisonous Snake.

GOV. JOHN W. GEARY RE-ELECTED,

JUDGE WILLIAMS ELECTED.

PENNSYLVANIA SAVED.

The 15th Amendment Saved, and Endorsed by the People.

LIBERTY SAVED!

"Equal and Exact Justice to all Men."

The Declaration of Independence interpreted by the Intelligent People of the old Keystone to mean just what Jefferson intended when he wrote: "All Men are created Equal entitled to Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness."

GRANT'S POLICY ENDORSED!

THE OLD DEMOCRATIC ROOSTER ON HIS BACK!

Pennsylvania, Ohio and Iowa declare in thunder tones against Repudiation!

A Side View of that Same OLD COON!

We will give you a touch of the same old tune,
We will show you a sight of the same old Coon.
With Rebel and traitor and tory buffoon,
We'll Pack —er away by the light of the moon.

Freemen of Centre county, with this number of our paper, we bear you glorious tidings. Asa Packer, the oppressor of the poor, the advocate of English free trade, the rebel sympathiser, and the companion of Heister Clymer, Judge Woodward and Vallandigham, has been repudiated by the honest freemen of Pennsylvania, and sent to "his own place" along with repudiation Pendleton, ignored, dispised, repudiated by the loyal people of Ohio.

Packer and Pendleton! Their doom is sealed. They refused to aid their country in the hour of her greatest peril. When men, money and munitions of war were needed by the Government to save the nations life, they voted "not another man nor another dollar." When Gen. Grant held Lee by the throat, and the "boys in Blue" were putting forth the last great, and glorious effort to save the Union and the "star spangled Banner"—these men—Packer and Pendleton in the Democratic National Chicago Convention, voted "the war a failure" and its results "nothing but debt slaughter and disgrace." For such conduct as this the loyal masses have repudiated them. For their base truckling to, and their sympathising with, the Rebel hordes who sought to destroy the best Government God ever gave to man, the loyal and Liberty loving masses of Pennsylvania and Ohio have voted them down, and consigned them to an oblivion, deep as it is merited.

Down, down they go. Deeper and deeper still, they sink. And as they sink we see written upon them, and sinking with them the infamous doctrines of Repudiation, "English free trade" "Secession and state Rights," "Imperialism," Southern Confederacy," "Negro Equality," "Miscegenation," "Wool" "Hair" "Blood," "Slaughter" "Disgrace" and as the waters close over them we imagine we can here them exclaim or rather gasp "Southern Brethren—"Nigger Nig—gar, N—i—g—g—a—a—a. They are gone.

Yes! Gone!! They have sunk to rise no more. As the boatmen ducked Asa Packer in the waters of the Lehigh, in 1843, for attempting to make them work at starvation prices, so have the Nation's boatmen, the "Boys in Blue" and the loyal, patriotic masses, who aided to stear the "Ship of State" clear of rebel breakers and secession quick sands, ducked him in the sea of public indignation. Down! Down!! Down he goes, together with his treason-loving party. So low, as never to know a political resurrection.

Packer, and the Pennsylvania Democracy, have fought their last fight.—Packer is gone—forever gone—from the political arena, and the Democracy can never again rally under its present name and organization. Ichibod is written upon their banner.

"No sound can awake them to glory again."

As passed away Judas Iscariot, so they pass away. As the people—the loyal people of Revolutionary fame wrote "Traitor" upon the brow of Benedict Arnold, and consigned him to eternal infamy, so the loyal people of Pennsylvania and Ohio have written "Traitor" upon the brows of Packer, Pendleton and the leaders of the so-called Democratic party, and consigned them to their place—down—deep down, with the rebel enemies of the Govment. Liberty and the Nation.

Republicans of Centre county, your sky is clear, bright and serene. While it is true that our county ticket has been defeated, yet we have "Scotched" the snake, and gave them a terrible scare. We have cut down their majority on the State ticket; we have come within a few votes of electing four of our candidates; we could have done so if Republicans had all turned out to the polls. As it is, we have done well. Providence is on our side. "John Brown's soul is marching on." We have great reason to thank God for free school and intelligence. The Democracy, under the lead of the Court House Ring, can never rally again. The honest, independent voters of Pennsvalley, who refused to vote for the "Ring" ticket on the 12th inst., will now leave the Democracy forever. We bid them welcome to our victorious ranks—to our liberty-loving organization.

To E. W. Hale of Bellefonte, for working oxen, $5.00

The stock of cattle on exhibition was very limited and not what it should have been, by any means, for this county.

HENRY KELLER, Chairman.

HORSES.

The committee regret to report that with some few exceptions the stock of horses fell far below what they had reason to expect. They are well aware that Centre county can make a good show in horses of every description including colts down to three months old; superior draft horses, finely formed driving and riding horses, brood mares of great excellence, we know are numerous in our valleys, and may at all times, be seen on the farms, and on the roads, yet the owners seem careless about contributing this very important feature in a county fair. Our farmers are certainly standing in their own light in withholding anything they may have to exhibit of stock kind and particularly good horse stock; they should do all they could to keep up with the progress of our growing country, and which is best seen in the product of the soil; this is the aim of all our fairs, and should be highly appreciated by the farmers; with them rests the responsibility. Many of our citizens are willing to spend their time and money, and are doing both to keep up a growing interest in our fairs, but if not met with the right kind of encouragement by the farmer, their labor will be in vain. We call on all the farmers in Centre county, to aid this society at our next annual fair, and each one for himself to contribute whatever he may have of stock, or produce kind, and make our county fair what it is intended to be, a credit and an honor to our farming community.

Your committee after a full examination of all the horse stock on exhibition do now make and award as follows:

Best stallion heavy draft three year old, John A. Keller first premium.

Second best stallion heavy draft four year old, David Harter second premium.

Best stallion light draft, Jno. Shaffer jr, first premium.

Second best stallion Joseph Dressler, second premium.

Marshall Heaton, best bushel of native oats, the Practical Farmer.

Experimental farm at Agricultural College for best barley "Prosser," the Practical Farmer.

Thomas Watson, best rye, the Practical Farmer.

William Thompson for best white corn, the Practical Farmer.

John S. Foster for best Red corn, the American Agriculturalist.

They also recomend premiums to Isaac Treasler for fine sample Timothy Seed and to John J. Musser for the excellent sample of Clover seed, to each of whom is awarded the Practical Farmer.

Committee—John S. Foster, R. Conley, Geo. Buchanan and Geo. S. Gray.

IMPLEMENTS.

The undersigned committee would most respectfully present the following as their report on Agricultural implements.

To J. P. Zimmerman, agent Bellefonte, for Geysers patent grain seperator, No 1, the largest manufactured. This machine is too well known to require any special commendation at the hands of your committee. It is believed to warrant all that has been said of its merits, will doubtless be more extensively used as it becomes better known.

To Shortlidge & Co. agents Bellefonte. For the Marsh Harvester; a machine introduced the present season which has given very general satisfaction and is highly spoken of by those who have tried it. It claims a great saving of labor and in the opinion of the committee, with justice, price $ 2.20. Diploma.

To Peter Hoffer, agent Centre Hall Pa., for the Excelsior combined mower and reaper, a machine well and extensively known in this county and as its name indicates, in the opinion of the committee, is excelled by none of which they have any knowledge. Manufactured by J. F. Seiberling & Co., Akron Ohio. First premium—diploma.

To A. D. Swartz, agent of Centre Hall Manufacturing Company, Centre Hall Pa., first premium—a diploma.

For the Keystone Harvester, a combined mower and reaper, manufactured in this county, which has been greatly improved during the past year, and in the judgment of the committee, now takes rank with the best machines in the country—price $ 180.00.

To McLanahan, Stone, and Isett, Tipton Blair county Pa. for a mower, said to run light and work well. diploma.

To J. M. Rees, Linden Hall, for a very superior horse power, corn sheller and seperator, said to shell 150 bushels of oats per hour, price $ 250.00. First premium—diploma.

To G. S. Garth, Mill Hall, Clinton county, for a hay and straw cutter new, simple and well made price $ 10.00. diploma.

To T. B. Rupert, Zion Pa. for a hay fork, diploma.

To B. P. Alexander, Glen Hope Pa. for a hay fork, diploma.

The committee were divided as to the merits of the two forks finally concluded to award premiums on the same basis. The former specie obtained of Mr. Rupert and the latter called the Anchor at Milesburg, at $ 12-0/5. They both work exceedingly well. A Harpoon hay fork was also exhibited by McLanahan, Stone and Isett, which has merit.

To A. D. Swartz, for Harpoters patent corn planter, a very superior article, (with improvements) and which the committee deem worthy of special notice, price $30. First premium—diploma.

To L. K. Dunkle, for a seeding machine intended sowing broad cast, seeds of every description more regularly than can be done by hand. As tested by the committee, will sow wheat 30 feet wide; oats and clover seed 20 feet, well worthy of a trial, price $ 15. Diploma.

To Musser, Foote and Bower, Millheim Pa. for a very superior two horse cultivator, well made and properly constructed in every particular, first premium; diploma.

To Irwin & Wilson, hardware dealers, Bellefonte Pa., for a hand buck eye lever corn sheller, also exhibited a union churn; a cider mill both the latter entitled to favorable notice, a diploma.

To James Zimmerman, for a shovel, hoe and manure fork. For all; premium $ 1.00

To Wm. Williams, Martha Furnace, Centre county Pa., exhibits a portable dry house combination apparatus is intended for drying fruit of any and every kind, in the best manner and in the shortest time, preserving fully the properties of fruits, vegetables and meats, without being charred or scorched, yet the operation is so expeditious, that no fermentation can take place and the first is caused to have a bright and clear appearance. Apples, peaches &c. can be perfectly dried in one day. Price $ 75 to $80. The committee desire us to add that this apparatus is one that has been greatly wanted and is well worthy the attention of fruit growers and others and therefore, although not in the published list for competition, recommend an honorary mention of diploma.

All of which is respectfully submitted, Bellefonte October 8th 1869.

Committee—E. C. Humes, David Keller, Peter Ruble, Isaac Kaup, Conrad Struble.

POULTRY.

The committee to judge of the merits of poultry, award the following:

To Joseph Baker, for best coop of chickens $ 3.00.

To Joseph Baker for pair of ducks, the Practical Farmer.

To John Kibe for best pair of chickens, the American Agriculturist.

To Claud Linn for coop of Bantams, a napkin ring.

Committee—John D. Wingate, Wm. Allison jr., John Robson, E. Green.

FRUIT.

We the committee appointed to report upon the merits of fruits on exhibition find a large and noble variety, making it difficult to decide. The display is very creditable to the county, showing an awakened interest in this important branch of industry, we award as follows:

To Christian Dale for the best and largest variety of apples $ 3.00

To T. B. Rupert for best varieties of apples $ 2.00.

To same for best varieties of peaches $ 2.00

o same for best twelve varieties of fall apples $ 2.00

To William P. Fisher for best twelve varieties of winter apples $ 2.00

To Joseph Baker for best twelve varieties of pears $ 1.00.

To same for best water melon $ 1.00

To same for best musk melon $ 1.00

To same for best display of fruits $ 5.00

To same for best varieties of grapes $ 2.00

The committee also found the apples of J. G. Larimer, the summer belle flower apple of John Weaver, the disp ay of apples by John Q. Musser and the display of grapes and apples by Hamill Boal and many more worthy of premiums, but fear the fund of the society will not warrant any extension of the list. They would state that the fruit stand who did be enlarged.

Committe—Jas. A. Rankin, Adam Hess, John Musser sr., J.S. Proudfoot.

FLOWERS.

To the president and officers of the Centre county agricultural society: Your committee appointed to examine and decide as to the merits of the various plants, flowers &c., presented for exhibition in this department, respectfully report.

That a meeting of the members of this committee was held when it was found that three members Miss Maria Foster, Miss Rebecca Lyon and Miss Annie Shannon were absent. The chairman then appointed to serve in their stead, Miss Sarah Thompson and Miss Mary Nolan. Although the committe still lacked one member to make it number five persons, yet after consultation it was considered best to proceed without further delay. The various plants and ornaments were examined in the order in which they were entered on the books. Your committee had their attention first called to the very fine collection of flowers exhibited by Prof. J. Y. M Kee, of agricultural college of Pennsylvania, this collection not only contained the largest variety, but also some exceedingly rare and beautiful plants. He had on exhibition of pinks alone upwards of fifty varieties which were arranged in a very neat and artistic order, some of his Heddwig pinks were by measurement two and three fourth inches in diameter, and were marked by most delicate colors. His double pinks were also very fine, and made a most creditable appearance. Of his collection of pansies, the committee unanimously xpress their admiration for the delicate tints and rich color, that appeared in their unusually large petals. He also had a quite large box, full of double flowering portulaca, which is very rare, and shows in an admirable manner, the singular results of careful cultivation upon plants. He had on exhibition a great variety of Petunias both double seedlings and hybrids. The petunias are found but seldom and scarcely ever seed. The single hybrids are most beautiful in flower and show some splendid markings. Your committee had no hesitation in awarding to Prof. M'Kee for his collection the premium of $ 3.00 for the greatest and choicest collection of different kinds of flowers.

Miss Julia Kroh exhibited upwards of 20 varieties of dahlias. They were perfectly double and of various colors. There being no others on exhibition your committee accordingly awarded to her the premium of $ 2.00, for the greatest varieties of dahlias.

The committee noticed two hand boquets arranged and exhibited by Daniel Dunlap. They presented a very rich appearance, and were tastefully and skillfully arranged. The committee awarded him the premium of $ 1.00 for the best hand boquet.

There were three hanging baskets on exhibition containing different sorts of Ivy with ferns and other plants of beauty. The schedule of the society does not mention anything in regard to hanging baskets, but the committee feel very much recommend that some recognition be taken of the one exhibited by Miss Maggie Harris. The others were very fine and the committee would mention them honorably.

A beautiful rustic flower stand containing a variety of plants, was exhibited by Mrs. J. P. Harris. The committee examined this collection with pleasure and awarded to her the premium of $ 2.00 for the best and largest collection of green house plants.

Your committee also would call your attention to a stand of flowers exhibited by Mrs. Adam Hoy. The plants are of fine varieties and show great care in cultivation and taste in selection. This stand was the only competitor with the one exhibited by Mrs. Harris and the committee recommend that this should be honorably mentioned.

Miss Elizabeth Harris had on exhibition one pink perinukle, and one sensitive plant. The first of these was in fine bloom, and looked very creditable; the sensitive plant was a very fine one, and is almost a miracle of plant life, shrinking from the touch with almost nervous sensibility. The committee would recommend that a premium be awarded to Miss Harris, but the article does not come under the classes given for the direction of the judges.

Your committee having now disposed of all the natural plants found that their labors were not yet ended, but that they had the still more difficult and delicate duty yet to perform, namely that of deciding upon the relative merits of artificial flowers and ornaments.

They first noticed a collection of autumn leaves made of wax, exebited by Miss Sarah McAllister. They were very natural, and were an exceedingly close imitation of nature. The committee earnestly recommended that a premium be awarded to Miss McAllister for this exhibition of her skill and taste.

Miss McAllister had also a collection of pond lillies, that looked very well indeed, they were a fine imitation of these most delicate flowers.

Your committee next examined a wreath made by Mrs. A. Geary, showing a great deal of skill and a cultivated taste, and the committee would honorably merit the collection.

Miss Annie M. Harris exhibited a vase of flowers that were very creditable indeed, and were certainly the result of great patience and care, and the committe recommend that they be honorably mentioned.

There was on exhibition fine collections of fruits, arranged in various manners, and presented a very creditable appearance, your committee were unanimously of the opinion that the premium of $ 1.00 be awarded to Miss Lula Meek for the best floral ornament.

Miss Clara E. Zimmerman exhibited one ornament made of egg shells which is certainly very fine and deserves recognition.

Two articles were on exhibition that were not on the books of the committee, a fine bouquet arranged by Miss Mary Curtin and, a collection of ornamental fruits, the name of the exhibitor is unknown to the committee. These articles deserve mentioning.

Your committee regret that they could not have had a more extended schedule from which to award premiums, and felt at a loss as to what they should do so as to do justice to all, for the majority of the articles there was no premium mentioned in the list and the committee would suggest that more attention should be paid to this department, and some provision made so as to induce exhibitors to bring out their rare and ornamental plants.

Committee—John Hamilton, Miss Mile Hunnes, Miss Sarah Thompson, Miss Mary Nolan.

The executive committee concur most heartily with the committee in the honorable mention of the exhibition of articles, for which no premiums were offered, but decline in the present involved financial condition of the society the award of the premiums commended by the committee.

VEGETABLES

The undersigned committee on vegetables beg leave to report as follows:

Best and largest assortment of table vegetables $ 3.00 to Joseph Baker. The exhibition of potatoes and onions by W F Thompson was very fine but failed to equal in variety Mr Baker.

Best potatoes while of any variety, one bushel. George Dale (Harrison potato $ 3.00

Best twelve heads cabbage Joseph Baker, Practical Farmer.

Largest sweet punkins entered single Wm W Rupert. Practical Farmer.

Best peck sweet potatoes James Zimmerman Practical Farmer.

Best peck of sugar beets C. Dale jr., Practical Farmer.

Best peck carrots James Fannon, Practical Farmer.

Best peck of parsnips Lyson, American Agriculturist.

Best peck stalks celery included in lot of vegetables first above mentioned not entitled to premium under the rules but very fine and superior to all exhibited. Exhibited by Joseph Baker.

Best six cauliflowers, James Fannon, had the only specimen and as a premium was only offered for six, no award was made. The specimen produced by Mr Fannon was very fine.

Best six white turnips John S Foster, American Agriculturist.

Best six reed beets Charles Witmer, American Agriculturist.

Best six onions Soda Longwell, Practical Farmer.

Best six heads broccoli no exhibition.

Best six tomatoes J G Larimer, Practical Farmer.

Best three largest sweet pumpkins, Jonathan Bullock, Practical Farmer.

Best three largest field pumpkins none.

Best beans, no lima exhibited, but a very fine lot of white beans Jas. McClintick, American Agriculturist.

Best squashes Jonathan Bullock, Practical Farmer.

Your committee recommend an award for fine specimens of vegetables to W. F. Thompson, J G Larimer, J Z Longwell and Daniel Dunlap of the Agricultural College. We call especial attention to one half dozen Kohlrabi exhibited by Mr Dunlap and recommend that a premium be given for them. In awarding premiums we have not allowed the same article to compete twice by being entered in different classes. All which is respectfully submitted Committee—Fredrick Kurtz, A B Hutchinson, John Curtin Christian Dale, sr, George H. Weaver, John L Thompson.

BACON, HAMS, FLOUR AND MEAL.

The committee on bacon hams, flour and meal after examination of the articles on exhibition, make the following awards:

To Mrs William Thompson for best sugar cured ham, ¼ dozen desert spoons.

To James Zimmerman for next best ¼ dozen tea spoons.

To Solomon Damer bes. wheat flour $ 3.00

To D & I D Liggel best buckwheat flour $ 2.00.

Your committee regret to say so few entries were made in this department that the competition amounted to nothing. There was not one pound of corn meal exhibited and that in a county where the best is raised they trust this will not again occur.

Committee—William Keller, John H. Morrison, W. L. Gordon.

MANUFACTURED ARTCLES, CLOTHS, HARDWARE &c.

The committe on the above award to James Thompson and Sons of Milroy, Mifflin county for the best display of manufactured articles, cloth &c., including carpet, woolen goods &c.,—diploma.

To W W Montgomery of Bellefonte for overcoat, dress coat, pants and vests of his own manufacture, a diploma.

To Mrs Catharine McClintic of Bellefonte for home made flannel, a butter knife.

To Mrs R B Wilson for sheets and pillow cases a pair napkin rings.

The committee take great pleasure in bringing to the notice of the public the large display made by Burnside & Thomas of Bellefonte which was composed of lap rugs, floor drives &c., &., and very creditable; of that of J. & J. Harris of Bellefonte, consisting of many articles of hardware and house furnishing goods including an apple parer which we would recommend; of Isaac Hamst of Bellefonte of stoves including the calorific and lettle fanny; of Irvin & Wilson of Bellefonte of stoves bracing the oriental and other varieties.

To W R Penman for best horse shoes $

The display in this department was an improvement upon last year.

Committee—S Ettlinger, J J Foster, Thomas Dale, John Keaser.

LEATHER AND ITS MANUFACTURES

The undersigned committee upon leather and its manufacture, would report that they have examined the several articles committed to their charge and report as follows:

To J H McClure, Bellefonte, for best man's saddle $ 2.00.

To J H McClure, for side saddle, single harness and collar; diploma

To John Powers, for best pair boots, "napoleons" $ 1.00

To P McCaffery & Co for ladies slippers $ 1.00

To Isaac Kaup for dressed deer skin $ 1.00

The display of boots and shoes by Messrs Burnside & Thomas Zimmerman Bro & Co Graham and Brother, Rossell, Gilliland & Co. Isaac Hall & Co and P McCaffery & Co was very good and deserves particular mention.

Committee—Jeremiah Haines, W H Humes.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS AND CABINET WARE.

The committee on musical instruments &c after a careful examination of all the instruments and articles on exhibition, concluded to give their decision in the following manner:

To the Calder piano, exhibited and operated upon by the Fisher Bros of Bonisburg and Zion a diploma.

To the Cabinet organ made by Peloubet, Peltre & Co and exhibited by Mr T P Ryuder of Lock Haven a diploma

To T P Ryuder for the best display of musical instruments $ 10.00

To S W Williams & Co of Bellefonte for the best secretary a diploma

To John Breckbill of Bellefonte for the best lounge a diploma

The clothes drier exhibited by S H Williams & Co. and the hanging hat rack exhibited by John Brackbill deserve especial notice, as do the other articles in their display.

Committee—A Hibler, E. M. Blanchard.

DAIRY AND HONEY.

The committee on dairy and honey report that after examining the articles on exhibiton of this class, unanimously made the following awards.

To Mrs James H Rankin of Bellefonte, for the best five pounds of butter in prints, a butter dish.

To Mrs Hezekiah Hoy for next best ¼ dozen tea spoons.

To Mrs Agnes Wilson of Benner, for the best single pound of butter, a cream ladle.

To Mrs E Boal of Harris, for next best, pair of sugar spoons.

To S S Jones of Boggs, best cheese, a butter dish.

No butter in firkins was upon exhibition, neither was there any honey.

Chairman of committee—Wm H Blair.

BREAD AND CAKES, (A)

The committee on bread and cakes in which none but married ladies can be competitors, award as follows:

To Mrs E Boal of Harris, for best loaf of wheat bread ¼ dozen tea forks.

To Mrs. Fred Kortz of Centre Hall, for next best, pair pickle forks.

To Mrs. William Thompson, for best tea biscuit pair mustard spoons.

To Mrs. Agnes Wilson for next best, pickle fork.

The bread exhibited was all very good and it was difficult to decide which was best when all were so good. The biscuit was also very fine and we can recommend the persons who made the articles as all first rate bakers.

Committee—Maria L. Milliken, Mary J Hall, Annie M Jack, Rachel C Curtin.

BREAD AND CAKES, (B)

The committee beg leave to award as follows:

To Miss Nancy Glenn for best loaf of wheat bread, ¼ dozen dessert spoons.

To Miss Lizzie D Musser for second best loaf of wheat bread one pair pickle forks.

To Miss Mary Smith for best dozen tea biscuit, one pair mustard spoons.

To Miss Sarah Emerick, for second best dozen tea biscuit, one pickle fork.

The following also exhibited articles in this line worthy of commendation;

Misses Alice Bartley, Maggie Lewis, Maggie Morgan, Biddy Fox and Mary M Baker.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

Committee—Catharine Montgomery, Mary A Nolan, B F Rankin.

CAKES.

The undersigned committee would respectfully report that they have endeavored fully to discharge their duty and make the following awards;

To Miss Sallie E Benner for best sponge cake, a cream ladle.

To Miss Jane A Rankin for cream sponge, pair napkin rings.

To Miss E C Humes for best marble cake, pair napkin rings.

To Miss Lizzie Neff for best cocoanut jelly cake, butter knife.

To Miss E M Thomp on for best white mountain cake, pair sugar spoons.

To Miss Margaret Lewis for greatest variety of cakes, a cream ladle.

The variety of cakes was not very large but reflected great credit on the exhibitors.

Committee—Lauder, Mrs S Rankin. Mrs E J Geary, Mrs A R Kinsloe, Mrs Mary A Conley.

DRIED FRUITS, PRESERVES, &c.

The committee on dried fruit, preserves, &c. respectfully report that a majority of said committee met at the fair grounds on Wednesday the 6th day of October, A. D., 1869, and after a careful examination of the articles on exhibition, do award the premiums as follows, viz:

For the best strawberry preserves, to Mrs. T. B. Rupert's pine napkin rings.

For the best dried sugar corn to Mrs. Wm. Thompson 1 napkin ring.

For the best glass crab preserves, to Mrs. Sallie Wilson, 1 napkin ring.

For the best dried peaches, to Miss Mary M Baker, 1 pair butter knives.

For the best dried cherries, to Sarah Baker, 1 pair butter knives.

For the best dried apples, to Soda Longwell, 1 pair butter knives.

For the best tomato butter, to Mrs. S. A. McQuistion 1 pair salt spoons.

For the best preserved peaches, to Mrs. Sarah Potter 1 pair mustard spoons.

For the best preserved pears, to Margaret Hemmer, 1 butter knife.

For the best peach butter, to Mary I. Thompson, 1 napkin ring.

All of which is respectfully submitted by the committee.

JELLIES, &c.

The committee appointed to distribute the premiums upon jellies, canned fruit, &c., respectfully report, that a majority of said committee met at the fair grounds on Wednesday the 6th day of October, A. D., 1869, and after having carefully examined the jellies and canned fruit on exhibition, do award the premiums as follows, viz;

For the best currant jelly, to Mrs. T. B. Rupert, 1 napkin ring.

For the best blackberry jelly, to Anna M. Furey, 1 napkin ring.

For the best canned pears, to Mrs. John P. Harris, 1 pair napkin rings.

For the best canned plums, to Mrs. Dr. C W. P. Fisher, 1 pair salt spoons.

For the best grape jelly, to Mrs. John I. Musser, 1 pair pickle forks.

Plum butter, to Miss Louisa Van Tries—no competition—1 napkin ring.

For the best gooseberry jelly, to Miss Sophia C. Keller, 1 napkin ring.

For the best apple jelly, to Miss C. M. Thompson, 1 pair pickle forks.

For the best canned peaches—the committee could not decide, but suggest that the premium be awarded to Mrs. H. N. McAllister and Mrs. Sarah Potter—1 pair butter knives.

For the best crab jelly (the committee could discern no difference between the jars exhibited by Mrs. John I. Musser and Mrs. S. A. McQuistion; they therefore suggest the like premium to each), 1 pair butter knives.

Your committee further state that the quality of the jellies and canned fruits was superior, and in many cases it was difficult to decide who was entitled to the first premium. A great variety of jellies and fruits not mention ed in the list was on exhibition.

Committee—Mrs. J. H. Mitchell, Mrs. H. Y. Stitzer, Mrs. A. O. Furst.

PICKLES, WINES AND CIDER.

Your committee on pickles wines and cider, respectfully report that after an examination of all the articles they award as follows:

To Mrs. T. B. Rupert, Zion, best pickled tomatoes, a salt spoon.

To same, for best pickled peppers, a pickle fork.

To same, for best cider, a cream ladle.

To Mrs. A. E. Benner, Bellefonte, for best nasturcian, a mustard spoon.

To Mrs. J. G. Larimer, Spring, for best blackberry wine, a sugar spoon.

To same, for raspberry wine, a salt spoon.

" " " pickled cucumbers, a pickle fork.

To Mrs. E. M. Blanchard, for best cider vinegar, a mustard spoon.

To Miss Millie Humes, for best raspberry vinegar, a salt spoon.

To Miss Annie Jack, for best catsup, a sugar spoon.

The committee desire to notice the cherry wine exhibited by Miss S. I. Thompson, the pickled cucumbers of Miss Alice Gilliland, the cider vinegar of Mrs Saml Gilliland, the currant wine of Miss Mary Graham, the tomatoe and cucumber catsup of Mrs Sarah Potter, the tomatoe catsup of Miss M. T. Milliken, and pickled tomatoes of Mrs A. E. Benner, as all deserving.

FANCY NEEDLE WORK, "ZEPHYR."

Committee—Mrs J P Harris, Mrs E C Humes Miss Maggie Harris.

MISCELLANEOUS ARTICLES.

The committee on miscellaneous articles have the honor to make the following report;

Two members of the committee only were in attendance who called to their aid Mr. Frank McClain so that in case of a division of opinion they might not be equally divided. They examined carefully all the articles entered in the class of miscellaneous articles and were pleased with the variety as well as the excellence of the articles exhibited For a number of articles entered no premium was offered and in such cases the committee have not been obliged to take the responsibility of awarding a premium or commending themselves with honorable mention of the articles exhibited.

100 bricks made by machinery by the Bald Eagle Brick co., were exhibited by their superintendent, Mr. Frank Wallace. They were of a superior quality both as to smoothness of finish and the manner in which they burned. No premium was offered for brick, but the committee are of the opinion that the quality and price of building materials are matters of so much importance to the public generally that it must be impolitic to pass them by without some more durable notice than honorable mention; they therefore recommend the award to Frank Wallace, supt. Bald Eagle Brick Co., a diploma for superior specimens of brick made by him. They would recommend of a department to include all articles used for building purposes so that enterprise and skill may be forstered and rewarded.

No carriages were entered for exhibition and although three buggies were entered they did not come into direct competition with each other. There were two exhibitors, Shires & Williams of Milesburg and Cranmer & Saul of Lock Haven. The former exhibited an open buggy, a platform spring wagon and sleigh, and the latter a top buggy and an open buggy with side springs. The articles all exhibited unusual skill in the manufacture and finish, and show a determination to compete with the articles of this kind manufactured in the eastern cities. The committee award to Shire & Williams for the best open buggy, a diploma, and to Cramer & Saul for the best top buggy, a diploma.

Ezra Spangler exhibited a specimen of marble, from Bellefonte, Ill., of a good and capable of a fine polish; the color is a light French gray and is very desirable for building purposes.

The fine arts were largely represented in oil paintings and crayon drawings. Exhibitions were made by Thomas B. Nolan, Miss Carrie E. Sayre, Mrs. Dunham and Miss Anna M. Harris. The committee award to Miss Carrie E. Sayre the premium for the best specimen of painting in oil, $2, and to Miss Anna M. Harris and Thos. B. Nolan special mention for their crayon drawings.

The premium for the best washing machine, $2, is awarded to C. H. DeKnight, of Pittsburg, for his machine called the "Dexter." It is a machine of great merit and was in operation a large portion of the time.

To Dr. Sam'l A. Belford of Bellefonte, the committee awarded the first premium for specimens of dentistry, $2, and to Jerry J. Wingate, the second premium $1.

S. A. Woods of Spring Mills exhibited a set of chess men carved by him out of the case of an old clock which has been in the family for over 100 years. The committee took pleasure in awarding to him the premium for the best specimen of wood carving, $2.

Isaac Haup exhibited several specimens of cooperage, consisting of barrel, churn, tub and meat vessel. The workmanship was superior, and ingenuity displayed in the construction of the churn is worthy of remark. The committee award to him the premium of $2 for the best piece of light cooper work.

The committee take pleasure in noticeing as worthy of special mention a gate patented by Isaac Gray, and exhibited by L. J. Grenoble of Gregg twp., which for simplicity, utility and convenience can scarcely be excelled.

One pump and pair of bob-sleds exhibited by James Telier of Milesburg and manufactured by him.

One bent bit holder and sash bolt invented and exhibited by J. H. Carothers of Lewisburg.

One lifting jack exhibiten by D. F. Taylor.

Rag carpet with hemp chain exhibited by Mrs. H. N. McAllister, and three lamps warranted a non-explosive coal oil, exhibited by Loeb May & Loeb, Bellefonte.

Dr. J. T. Rothrock, professor of Botany in the Agricultural College of Pa., exhibited a hubarium of plants ingeneous to the farm. The thanks of the farmers of Centre county are due to Dr. Rothrock for the care which he has made the needs and for the remarks which accompanied the specimens as to the best methods of their examination. The committee would suggest the propriety of requesting the Dr. to prepare a series of articles for publication on the needs represented in his hubarium, with such hints as to the means of their extermination as his experience may be able to suggest. In this way the entire farming community may be benefitted by valuable information which very few obtained by an inspection of the attention exhibited.

A large number of sewing machines were exhibited by zealous agents. No premiums were offered for these machines and of course none can be awarded by the com.

The com. cannot refrain, however, from noticeing specially the American Combination button hole, overseaming and sewing machine exhibited by Zimmerman Bro's. & Co. The ordinary work done by this machine is of a superior character and in addition to a slight adjustment of the parts. The same machine works button holes and overseaming very beautifully.

They would notice also the embroidery done by the Grover & Baker machine, exhibited by Frank P. Green, which seems to be peculiar to this machine, at least so far as those exhibited are concerned. The Singer machine exhibited by W. W. Montgomery and the Howe machine exhibited by G. W. Patton are both capable of doing good work and seems especially fitted for heavy work.

Mrs. Adam Hoy added to the interest in this department by the exhibition of India wood carvings, and set an example in this respect worthy of extended imitation, so that our exhibitions may better display the taste and ingenuity of our people.

A. D. Swarts exhibited a family horse and carriage which deserves special mention. The horse was an excellent driver and the wagon hung on platform springs, easily turned and very easy and comfortable.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

A SUPERIOR JOURNAL FOR ANY HOME.—We do not believe there is any way in which our readers could invest the small sum of one dollar and a half where it would bring them so large returns, both in profit and satisfaction, as in a subscription for the elegant journal of which we have received the Oct Number—the American Agriculturist. It was originally started 28 years ago, specially as a rural journal, and its motto ever since has been "Excelsior." Its size is now increased to 44 pages, with a beautiful cover upon each number, and it is literally crammed with most useful information for all classes, upon matters pertaining to the Farm, Garden and Household, with a pleasing and instructive department for Children and Youth. NOW is the time to subscribe, for the publishers offer the last two months of this year free, to all new subscribers received in October, for 1870. Four copies are supplied for $5.00. A valuable List of Premiums is offered to those securing clubs of subscribers. Address ORANGE JUDD & Co., 245 Broadway, N. Y.

FIRE.—On Monday evening last, at, or about 6 o'clock, after we had closed our forms, a fire broke out in the brick building owned by Jas. D. Turner, one end of which was occupied as a private residence by Mr. Turner, and the other end as a store room by Messrs. Loeb, May & Loeb and, notwithstanding the untiring efforts of the citizens to check the destroying element, the building although not burned to the ground, is a complete ruin. Messrs. Loeb, May & Loeb's loss is supposed to be about $3,000, partly insured.

IN our issue of the 15th of September, we published a marriage notice of Thomas G. Weirick and Unss E. Norton of Moshannon. We are sorry to say that some scamp imposed upon us as we have learned from Agricultural Department.

WEDNESDAY MORNING Oct. 20, '69.

Something to be Done.

Annually there are thousands of dollars lost in this country by neglect of valuable farm implements, and although this truth is apparent on reflection, and although year after year the bill of Mechanics for repairs are paid, still the inexcusable fault is committed. Now this is negligence, improvidence, lack of neatness and indolence. A little care at the right time, and a little time given to the performance of the duty of caring for the implements will secure their safety, their protection from decay and their being found whenever needed. Now these considerations are important to the careful farmer who regards time as money. In the commencement of harvest there is enough necessary work to demand the time and the attention of every one on the place; yet on many farms the unavoidable hurry and labor is increased by the discovery that the machinery is all rusty and unservicable. Just when they can be least spared, a hand must be sent off in hot haste with the reaper to the blacksmith shop, where he has to wait until the same work is executed for a dozen other farmers who have been guilty of the same neglect. It may be, and often does happen, that a particular casting is required to supply the place of one rendered useless by hard usage, and then a trip to town must be made, and it is fortunate if the needed part can be found nearer than Cincinnati. With this haste, vexation and trouble, of course, bad feeling is engendered, and employers and laborers are angry, and ill inclined to labor vigorously. In time the grass, wheat, rye and oats are cut, but is the lesson enforced by the trouble and expense of a few weeks remembered? One would think that a repetition of such annoyances would certainly be avoided; but, no! the old, careless, slipshod habit is strong, and the machines are permitted to stand right out in the fields where they were used last—where they will be rusted and covered with dirt. How easy it will be to draw it to the shed, where it will be secure, and then bring there the plows, axes, hoes, rakes, and every other implement on the farm. They will always be there when you need them in a hurry, if you replace them when your work is through. Counting the time lost in hunting the tools, and the money expended in repairs, by careless farmers, in the course of one year, and the aggregate would astonish even the most indifferent. These suggestions are timely now, and attention to the machinery will save trouble and money next year. Look over all your tools and machines, and if there is a nut or bolt out of order, put it right, for every farmer should have necessary tools, and know how to use them.—Clean away the dirt from every part, and the gummy oil from the journals; examine the screws, and give a coat of paint, or oil, to the woodwork.—Do all these little jobs carefully now, and you will not have your tempers spoiled, and your pockets depleted by trips to the blacksmith's shop in the busy time next season.—Farmer's Home Journal.

Abuse of Horses in Summer.

As a general thing, horses are more abused in summer months, than during the winter. One reason is, because they are put to harder labor when not in as good condition to endure it as in cold weather, their food not being as substantial. Another very common reason is, because due attentions are forgotten. During cold weather the master is constantly reminded of his beasts by the sting of frost upon his own person; but in summer many of the absolute necessities of a team are entirely forgotten.

Failing to give a plentiful supply of water, is a common fault. A teamster upon the road will water his horses at every favorable place, at least once an hour; but the plowman keeps the team in the field at hard work, on a hot day, for five or six consecutive hours—visiting the jug in the fence corner, to quench his own thirst, a dozen or more times during the half day. Now, horses suffer terribly from this neglect. We have seen them when brought to the trough, from the field, plunge their noses into the water, nearly to their eyes—having such a burning thirst.

Many farmers, believing a horse should not drink water after labor until entirely cool, bring their teams from the field after a six-hour's siege at the plow, and hitch them to a rack of dry hay to eat during the hour's "nooning," and water just before returning to the field. Think of this a moment; what condition is the team in to eat dry hay, when suffering with a burning thirst? And what condition are they in for plowing in the afternoon, without taking food, but with twice as much water as they should ever be brought into a condition to want at any one time? Is not this practice inhuman, to say the least?

Another neglect is in the proper adjustment of harness. Horses, when they perspire freely, are much more easily affected by bad harness than at other times, for the flesh is tender.—How often do we see a galled shoulder, and the poor animal kept at work the same as if nothing was wrong?—If the driver has a little chafed spot upon his foot, however small, it is attended to at once.

Horses are abused also by being compelled to stand in a close and foul stable during hot nights in the Summer, without bedding, and without ventilation; but, at the same time, every means possible is brought into use, at the house, to make a night's rest refreshing.

Some one has faithfully said that kindness to animals, of the industrial order, is a well paying thing. The better a horse is treated, the better will he work, unless his owner treats him unnaturally, which would be the reverse of kind action.—O. Farmer.

Correspondence New York Times.

An Illinois Farm--How It is Worked, and the Profits.

While at Jacksonville, Illinois, this week, I made myself acquainted with some facts relating to one of our prairie farmers, who occupies a princely estate near that beautiful city, and also has a mammoth cattle farm of 26,500 acres in Champaign county.—It cost him $400,000, and is styled, with much appropriateness, "Broadlands." It is nearly seven miles from north to south, and six from east to west, and its cattle capacity for summer pasturage, when fully grass-stocked, is estimated at 10,000 head. On the west side of the farm are two pastures one and a half miles by three miles, that contain nearly 3,000 acres each. To the east of these is a "patch" of corn half a mile wide and three miles long. On the farm there are 5,000 acres of corn, which, it is calculated, will yield, at a low estimate, 250,000 bushels. Of course, such a farm as this is worked by the most approved machinery of all descriptions applicable to agricultural labor, much of which is made on the "place," as there is a blacksmith shop, as well as a harness and carpenter shop, in constant operation. The working stock consists of fifty yoke of oxen and fifty spans of horses and mules; and the working force of a superintendent, a general foreman, six assistant foremen, a book keeper, a baker, a carpenter, a butcher, and about one hundred and fifty other operatives. The headquarters are in the centre of the farm, and there are six out-stations fully equipped. The average cost of boarding is thirty-five cents per day.

The farm is divided by two roads, two miles apart, north and south, and one through the centre east and west. These are lined with fifty-four miles of hedge, which was mostly set four years ago. Hedges have been, or are to be, set on every section line. Seventy five miles were set in the spring of 1868, and twenty-five last spring. These hedges are to supersede the post and board fence, of which there are now eighty miles. This has required about 50,000 posts, 640,000 feet of lumber and eighty kegs of nails.

Mr. Alexander is the owner of this farm, and his operations are stated to be as nearly as practicable, every year as follows: He first purchases 4,000 head of Texas steers, which cost him $140,000; cost of handling, interest, &c., $47,000; making an aggregate of $187,000. His average sales are $70 per head, or $280,000, leaving him a profit of $93,000. The profits upon the grain and other crops of the farm bring the whole up to nearly $200,000, after paying all expenses, and including a rent or interest of $4 per acre on the land. It will thus be seen that large farming in Illinois pays. His neighbor, Mr. Sullivant, farms even more lands, with like profitable results.

LIQUID MANURE ON THE FARM.—The Weekly Press copies from the Western Rural a brief article on liquid manure in gardens, and in connection with it, says:

We are anxious to know the best way to use liquid manure on farms.—All the plans that we have ever known for hauling it out have been very inconvenient, either from the time of the year when it should be applied, or from other circumstances, rendering it very laborious, or out of place. In our practice, we have a long, wide ditch, down which the manure-water courses, and into this ditch we haul earth, as dry as we can get it. Then, after a rain, when it is too wet for the hands to do other work, we set a few to throw out the soil; and when dry again, and little else to do with horses, we haul away the soaked earth to the compost-heap, where it gets heaped up together with weeds, rubbish, manure, lime salt, &c., is all used on the crops the next season. Our compost heap last year, made in this way, we valued at $1,000, that is, if manure, to produce the same effects that this did, had to be purchased, it would have cost that much to buy it; but the labor, actually expended, cost us but $250. We do not know that we have the best plan of utilizing liquid manure; but, so far as we have yet seen, it is certainly one of the best.

DON'T "LICK" THE HORSE.—Horses, as a general thing, get too much licking, and too little food. If a man loses his hat while driving his horse, he licks his horse to pay for it. If he runs into another wagon through his own carelessness, he licks his horse to make it all right. If the horse slips or stumbles, he gets licked for it—if he does anything he gets licked for it—if he don't do anything he gets the same. A great many horses know a "sight" more than their drivers, and if they could change places with them, society would be gainer, and so would the horses.

VEAL CROQUITS—Mince nicely two cups of cold roast veal, and two boiled sweet-breads; season with pepper, salt, a little parsley, and a small boiled onion chopped very fine; a large teacup of bread and milk boiled with a piece of butter the size of an egg.—Mix all together, shape them all dip them in an egg and fine cracker crumbs. Fry in boiling lard.

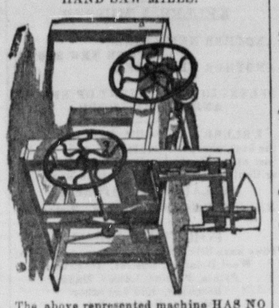
TALPEY'S PATENT

HAND SAW MILLS.



The above represented machine HAS NO EQUAL. It is simple in its construction, easily operated, and not liable to get out of order. One man can with perfect ease rip a two inch hard wood or a three inch plank in one third the time that it takes with the ordinary hand-saw, and besides, the most inexperienced apprentice can, with this machine

SAW TRUER AND STRAIGHTER

Than the best journeyman can with a Hand-Saw

THE JIG ATTACHMENT,

recently patented, (as shown by the cut, at the right) to be operated by foot or hand power, or both at the same time, is so arranged in combination with the Rip Saw that it forms one machine, and by a simple device is readily detached, and two distinct machines are rendered, and by putting on in place of the Rip Saw a Cross-Cut Saw, a

UNIVERSAL HANDSAW-MILL

is produced. Price reasonable. For further particulars address,

"GRANDFATHERS' STOVE."

Our grandfather's stove, what a funny old thing,
So deep, so wide and so tall;
Now the people would say, who are stylish and gay,
"It was only a hole in the wall."

It matters not what, it was pleasant to see
When night's mantle was flung over all;
Grandfather take down his good book and read
By the light from the hole in the wall.

As the sturdy young men rolled in the great logs,
They would laugh at each wintry squall,
Whilst grandma would sit on her old chair and knit
By the light from the whole in the wall.

The girls then wore home spun, and so did their beaux's,
For pride was a principle small;
And courting was done and hearts have been won
By the light from the hole in the wall.

The neighbors were friendly wherever they'd meet,
With a word of true kindness for all;
And joy was complete to hear voices so sweet
Ring round that old hole in the wall.

In those days we know, folks cared not for show,
Of improvements knew nothing at all;
But 'twas really no joke, when great clouds of smoke
Rushed out from the hole in the wall.

But those days are now o'er, we shall know them no more,
And all those old fashions have flown;
Whilst the solemn and gay are coming each day
To purchase the famous "OLD HOME."

Coming not only in counles, but in scores, as hundreds of good and wise men and women have done before, to look upon this magnificent stove, which is acknowledged to be the best cooking stove of the age. Remember the place,

SEWING MACHINES.

AMERICAN BUTTON-HOLE

OVER-SEAMING AND SEWING MACHINE COMBINED.

MEDAL AWARDED AT THE PARIS EXPOSITION, 1867.

In directing attention to the celebrated COMBINATION BUTTON HOLE AND SEWING MACHINE, we feel fully warranted in claiming for it unquestionable superiority over all others as a Family Machine.—The Simplicity, Ease and Certainty with which it operates, as well as the uniform excellence of its work, certainly place it far in advance of any other similar invention of the age.

It is also the cheapest, intrinsically, as well as the best, since it is really two machines combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch or Button Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparatively noiseless, easily understood, and, in a word, it combines with those advantages exclusively its own the most desirable qualities of all others, for it not only does every variety of sewing in a SUPERIOR MANNER, but in addition OVERSEAMS splendidly and makes beautiful BUTTON and EYELET HOLES in all fabrics. This is far beyond the capacity of any other machine.

The SPLENDID MECHANISM of this Machine, and the superior skill workmanship and materials employed in its construction, are a guarantee of accuracy, strength and durability, and enable the company and its agents to Warrant Every Machine they sell to give entire satisfaction.

INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN ON THE MACHINE GRATUITOUSLY.

Lessons may be taken if desired with a view to test the Machine, or to become better acquainted with it before deciding to purchase. Samples of work will be furnished on application at

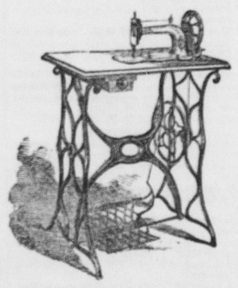
SEWING MACHINE.

THE SINGER SEWING MACHINE



Among sewing machines, those made by the Singer Manufacturing Company, rank with the highest. Their manufacturing machines, have long been known as the best for manufacturing purposes But within the past few years, they have given special attention to the production of a

FAMILY MACHINE,

destined to win much favor in the

HOUSEHOLD.

The machine which they now offer is quiet light-running, simple, fast, noiseless. Its accessories for

HEMMING, BRAIDING, BINDING,
QUILTING, TUCKING, CORDING,
FELLING, GATHERING,

are simple and easily understood. Its delicate though enduring and tireless muscles of iron and steel, do all the work noiselessly, better, and few will deny, "Faster than hand can do it." They urge those wishing to purchase a machine, to examine all the other manufactures before buying, as it will, for itself, overcome all the objections to the other machines that can be brought against it. Machines on hand for sale and exhibition, together with a full and complete assortmet of
